Professional Biography

Dug McGuirk is a motivational and inspirational keynote speaker who provides breakthrough experiences to help people reach their fullest potential.

Dug had massive success in the music industry despite starting from nothing. With no contacts or experience he rose from an intern to working on multi-platinum, Grammy winning albums. Like many of us, he had to "reinvent" himself and carve out a new career. From music he progressed into his deepest passion, speaking. Having years of experience on stage touring the country in various rock bands, he transitioned into speaking by keynoting for music conferences. Dug was fortunate enough to be part of a small, elite team hand picked by Tony Robbins, where he held the esteemed position of top rated Trainer and Senior Peak Performance Strategist.

Dug co-authored Multiple Streams of Inspiration with Jack Canfield (Chicken Soup for the Soul) and Johnny Wimbrely (From the Hood to Doing Good) He's a Master Practitioner and Trainer of NLP (Neuro Linguistic Programming) and certified in Neo Ericsonian Hypnosis, which enables him to elicit deep and lasting change in a short period of time. Dug struggled like many with addictive substances at an early age and overcame it.

His greatest passion is to help people achieve their dreams.

He is currently VP of Training and Development at Palm Holistic Healthcare, a multi-facility drug and alcohol behavior health treatment program. His role supports both professional and business development ranging from training leadership to the sales force as well as developing marketing. He also works closely with clients and their families running groups, coaching, and he co-created and co-facilitates the Family Program with his wife Heidi. His training is an intense, interactive experience designed to help unleash the leader in all of us.

His passion and enthusiasm is only exceeded by his genuine care and desire to make a difference.

Through dynamic storytelling, humor, teaching strategic skills and breakthrough experiences, the participants of Dug's trainings will experience deep and lasting transformation, enabling them to reach their ultimate potential. Dug will also customize a presentation, workshop or training to suit your needs.
